

Dian Ginsberg, EdD, CPCC, CHWC, is the President and CEO of The Career Consultants, LLC, and a renowned expert in career and wellness coaching. A Certified Professional Career Coach (CPCC) and is a Certified Health and Wellness Coach (CHWC), Dr. Ginsberg empowers high-performing individuals through career transitions, helping them find meaning and balance in their professional and personal lives. Her unique approach integrates wellness and professional development, ensuring sustainable success and fulfillment. A highly sought-after speaker and program facilitator, Dr. Ginsberg is known for her engaging and insightful presentations that inspire lasting change and purposeful leadership.

Liz Vogel is a distinguished leader at Moffitt Cancer Center, where she leverages her expertise in healthcare innovation and strategic initiatives to drive impactful change. Known for her dedication to enhancing patient care, provider wellbeing and advancing cancer research, Vogel plays a pivotal role in developing programs that improve outcomes and foster a culture of excellence. An engaging speaker and thought leader, she shares her insights on healthcare transformation, collaboration, and the future of provider wellbeing, inspiring audiences with her commitment to making a meaningful difference in the lives of patients and the medical community.